

BETTER GO SLOW.

Recently the Gazette published an editorial note to the effect that Judge Wells had not resigned from the Board of Regents, and would not do so until after the Supreme Court had passed upon the constitutionality of the law under which he was appointed to the Board. It now transpires that the Gazette was in error, for it seems that the Judge had resigned as a Regent.

The article was copied in several papers of the State without any thought of casting any reflection upon either Judge Wells or Governor Stevenson, but on the contrary, it was more of a kindness, because a great many people were casting reflections upon the Governor by saying that it took him a good while to make the appointment etc. etc.

Now comes Judge Wells with a threatening libel suit and the Gazette very promptly replies that there is no libel in it, and that a man so ignorant of the law should not be permitted to occupy a seat on the bench a single day. "Crack your whip, Judge, we are loaded for you."

Judge Wells has no more idea of bringing a libel suit against the Gazette than Governor Stevenson had of bringing one against the Post of San Francisco, for its attacks on him last year.

The appointment of Judge Wells to the bench was the greatest mistake ever made by Governor Stevenson. In the first place, Judge Wells is not entitled to a seat on the bench for any party services, and in the second place, his appointment is so glaringly unconstitutional that the State Controller cannot if he does justice to the constitution, issue a warrant for his salary.

The reasons the Governor had for hurrying Wells out of his own office and into a judicial, before other lawyers in the State were allowed to apply for the honor, needs no comment here.

The idea of a libel suit, for the statements made in the Gazette, is too ridiculous to be entertained for a moment.

PRIVATE DALZELL'S ADVICE

A communication that was at first taken for a Spring poem drifted into this office yesterday. It wasn't a rhyme, but the words were highly poetical. Private Dalzell's name was signed to the letter, which is given in full below:

The flowers we are gathering, comrades, for the solemn service of Decoration Day, 1889, will hardly have withered or lost their fragrance above the holy shrines where our heroic comrades sleep, until we shall lie down beside them. The time is drawing near. The night cometh. The three shots are already loaded in the guns soon to be fired over insensate clay. Passing away, 25,000—30,000 of us, annually, and in an accelerated ratio as the years roll on. We cannot tarry much longer. Bid the hungry and avaricious office-seeker and miser be patient. We shall soon be out of their way! Soon we shall all be mustered under the sod. It cannot be long.

They say we want the earth—the earth wants us and cannot wait much longer to receive us. Graves yawn at our feet. This is the last Decoration Day 25,000 of us shall ever see. Before another Decoration Day we shall rest under the graves and the flowers in our green tents of peace and rest. Solemn, then, and universal be the service of flowers. Bring your garlands, dear old comrades, and from your sad eyes once more and for the last time, shed your tears above the blooming blossoms of Spring, above the quietude of death let the flag float, the sweetest of all the flowers in the world.

FUN.

Managing Editor—Did you prepare that article on "The Intellectual Attainments of the Four Hundred?" Reporter—Yes, sir. M. E.—About how much space will it occupy? R.—About six lines.—Burlington Free Press.

That a "public office is a public trust" is doubtless true, but it is reported that the Washington hotel-keepers say this don't apply until after a fellow has got the office, and the consequence is that a large number have left for home.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

The Old Familiar Faces—Visitor from Indianapolis (to White House baby)—Well, Benny, I suppose you find Washington very different from your old home? Benny (cheerfully)—Oh, not much, sir. I miss the old streets and buildings, of course, but the people all seem to be here.—Puck.

"Elijah," said the President, with the voice and manner of one tired, "somebody has sent me a circular headed, 'Ho for Oklahoma,' and announcing special rates on the railways. I wish you would post it up conspicuously in the waiting-room where those fellows from Ohio can see it."

"Stop the press," howled the Democratic editor-in-chief, rushing into the composing room with a freshly printed copy of the paper. "What's wrong?" queried the foreman of the paper. "Wrong?" thundered the editor. "Why, we have actually gone to press without an editorial informing our readers that Blaine is running this Administration!"—Norristown Herald.

The transcontinental train to be put on the C. P. R. R. is said to be able to make a mile a minute.

TRIUMPH.

TRIUMPH is a beautiful bay; stands 15.2 and weighs over 1,200 and is the finest looking man ever saw. He took the first premium for 3 year-old Stallions at the State Fair of 1888. TRIUMPH will make the Season the same as Gibraltar and Alpha. Terms, $20 for the season; $30 to insure.

PEDIGREE.

Triumph by Prompter, Prompter by Wilson's Blue Bull, the sire of more horses with records from 2 15 to 2 30 than any horse that ever lived. McL. E. Clement, Secretary of the Missouri Trotting and Racing Horse Breeder Association in writing to Dr. Hicks, of Sacramento, owner of Prompter, says that he would rather breed to Prompter than any Stallion that is alive today. Triumph's dam is the celebrated St. Clair mare, Lady Brighton, owned by Mr. M. Toomy of Sacramento. His dam is now over 20 years old and can trot in 2 40 any day in the week. Senator Stanford in his catalogue of 1887 was breeding to St. Clair brood mares and the most of his horses that have made the best records for 2 3 and year-olds are out of St. Clair mares, namely: Fred Crocker dam by St. Clair, two year old record 2 20 1/2; Bonito, dam by St. Clair, 2 year old record 2 21 1/2; 3 year old record 2 15 1/2; Manzanita, dam by St. Clair, 4 year old record 2 16 fastest on record.

I have got 400 acres of pasture land enclosed and mares sent in care of me on the cars will be taken to the Ranch and bred and good care taken of them. Pasture, Two dollars per month, or will keep them up for $20 per month as I have over 100 fine box stalls. Accidents and escapes at owner's risk. There is a fine race track on the Ranch and I will take horses to train or colts to break at reasonable rates. I also have a few Gibraltar colts to sell. If you want a good colt can sell you one cheap. Positively no shooting allowed on the premises.

JOHN P. SWEENEY, Prop'r,
